

COL. CHENEY, ATTACHE AT PEKIN, MARRIES MISS LOUISE DELANO

Wedding in Stockbridge Is Followed by Reception in Her Parents' Home.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

STOCKBRIDGE, Mass., Sept. 10.—Miss Louise Delano, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Delano of 1128 Sixteenth street, Washington, D. C., formerly of Chicago, was married to Col. Sherwood Alfred Cheney, U. S. A., in the Congregational Church here at noon today. The decorations were Iceland yellow poppies, budies, gladioli and oak boughs.

The bride wore white chiffon embroidered in pearls, a tulle veil fastened by a pearl band around the head and cloth of silver train. She carried Easter lilies.

Miss Delano's matron of honor was her older sister, Mrs. Alexander Galt Grant of Brookline, Mass. She wore flame color chiffon over yellow taffeta and a brown hat and carried butterfly roses, yellow poppies and budies. Irene M. Robbins, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Delano Robbins of Washington, was flower girl. She wore a little gown sent from Paris by her grandmother, Mme. Gaston de Bruyn. It was of ecru embroidery and lace with a Romney style hat. The bride's mother wore periwinkle blue chiffon over satin with hat to match, having an ostrich plume. Mrs. John S. Cheney of South Manchester, Conn., mother of the bridegroom, wore black and white satin.

Rev. William Wallace Fenn, dean of Harvard Divinity School, formerly of Chicago, officiated. Col. Cheney's best man was Col. Halsted Dorey of Washington. Both were in uniform. The ushers were Messrs. William C. Cheney, brother of the bridegroom; Clifford D. Cheney, his brother-in-law; Alexander Galt Grant, Boston; James L. Houghteling, Chicago; Mayor Andrew J. Peters of Boston, Elliot Wadsworth, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury; Leland Harrison and Basil Miles of the State Department, Washington; Benjamin Strong and James B. Curtis of New York.

Miss Laura Seeley, organist, played music by Chopin and Wagner and Lehengrin and Mendelssohn wedding marches.

A reception was held for 200 relatives and friends at the Nursery, Miss Virginia Butler's villa, which the Delano family occupies this summer.

Among the guests were Mrs. Price Collier of Tuxedo and Mrs. Frederick Delano Hitt of Newburgh, sisters of the bride's father; Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Delano of Wilmington, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. Warren Delano Robbins of Washington, Mr. Louis Cheney, former Mayor of Hartford; Mrs. Cheney, Mr. and Mrs. William Cheney, Miss Emily, Miss Edna and Mr. William Cheney of Hartford; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Otis Cheney and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dexter Cheney of South Manchester, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Cheney Farley of Greenwich, Conn., Mr. and Mrs. George Herbert Cheney of New York, Mrs. Gustavus Farley, Jr., Miss Mary and Mr. Paul Cheney of South Manchester.

Mrs. Grafton Minot, Mrs. Edward B. Burling, sister of Mrs. Frederic A. Delano, Capt. and Mrs. Gibbons, Miss when Miss Mary E. Hodges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hodges of Brookline and Beverly Farms, became the bride of Mr. Fidele Koenig, son of Mrs. Joseph S. Fay of Boston. The Rev. Dr. William G. Thayer of Southbury, and the Rev. Nelson Fox Carey, rector of the Beverly Farms Church, officiated. Miss Joan Fay, a sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. The other attendants were Misses Jocelyn Parker and Anita Lee, Mrs. J. Robertson Ward and Mrs. R. W. Converse of Boston, Miss E. B. Forrest of Kansas City, Mo., and Miss Jane Marvel of Wilmington, Del. Little Antis Boyden was the flower girl. The best man was Mr. Reginald Taylor of Mt. Kisco, N. Y.

Mrs. Sherwood Alfred Cheney.

MRS. RADWAY HAS SON.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Radway are receiving congratulations on the birth of their third child, Robert William Radway, on September 8, in the Staten Island Hospital, West New Brighton.

Removal Sales—

During Indian Summer, when apparel of this heavier type is still quite uncomfortable—when the various sports activities are really at their best and affairs at the Country Club, the Country Home and the Resort Hotel are still in full sway, the fashions we are now offering in Removal Sales should be unusually attractive to the smartly dressed woman who desires Apparel of the better sort at moderate cost—

With these requirements in mind and the more drastic reductions which precede the removal to our new building, in effect, the time becomes most opportune for augmenting one's present wardrobe, as well as anticipating Autumn needs.
